

New Services

Click bullets for more information

- Customized fitness program that maintains and enhances seniors' wellness.
- Continuing and cooperative learning strategy for long-term care staff.
- A geriatric evaluation service in the emergency department with links to community partners that optimizes seniors care.
- An effective and efficient referral service for seniors accessing home care and/or community-based senior serving outreach workers.